Dear Superintendents:

As we prepare for the 2022-2023 school year, I want to make you aware of the bold steps that Florida continues to take to protect parental rights and ensure the lawfulness of instructional materials. The Department recently created a resource page for parents to help them navigate the avenues available for them to voice concerns regarding potentially unlawful school materials. This resource can be found here. It is imperative that districts notify parents of this resource intended to ensure the health, safety and welfare of our students.

Sincerely,

Jacob Oliva
