Certification Two: Devices Statement

Pursuant to S. 1011.62(12)(g), DCP allocation spending must place devices as a priority. The superintendent must provide verification of the district's use of DCP allocation funding to address any device gap while maintaining devices for instructional purposes. This information will be utilized for reporting purposes.

Santa Rosa School District has completed the device worksheet and verifies the district has or will purchase sufficient devices to allow each school to administer the Florida Standards Assessments to an entire grade at the same time.
