

CHAPTER 4.00 - CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION

SPEAKER GUIDELINES

4.45+

The following guidelines shall be followed for any presentation to students at a school site, either in individual classroom(s) or in a large group, at a school-sponsored group, or at a school-sponsored event:

- I. A legitimate and reasonable connection between the adopted curriculum and the guest's presentation must be established.
- II. With the exception of school-sponsored fund-raising events, promotion of a business, distribution of advertising, or collection of students' names, addresses, or phone numbers is prohibited.
- III. While factual information on politics, a religion, a culture, or ethnic group may be presented, proselytizing for or defamation of a particular political, religious, gender, or cultural viewpoint or an alternative lifestyle is not permitted.
- IV. Appropriate attire, language, and behavior are required.
- V. School officials have the right and the responsibility to interrupt the presentation with a warning and/or to stop the presentation for any violation of the agreement.
- VI. The name of any speaker who is warned regarding his or her presentation or stopped from continuing a presentation will be distributed to all district schools.
- VII. An approved Agreement and Guidelines for Guest Speakers form must be on file with the site administrator prior to any presentation.
